

Julia Reed is an experienced Licensed Clinical Social Worker with a focus on nonprofit management as well as direct service delivery in areas related to mental health, child development, trauma, parenting, mindfulness, and disaster response. Extensive experience providing clinical supervision to social workers in social service settings and those seeking clinical licensure.

She is a committed and connected nonprofit leader with demonstrated skills in impacting innovative change for those served within organizations. Strength in engagement of community partnerships for service delivery, staff development, team building and clinical/administrative supervision, and strategic planning and analysis.

Her specialties are: Nonprofit management; clinical social work supervision; mental health issues; disaster response and case management; grant development, implementation, and oversight; collaboration.